

Somewhere in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, I have hidden a small box (or two, or three or more). One of them contains a measure of the most perfect water – which may enhance your life. This therapeutic publication should facilitate your quest to be the first to find that water. To anyone who finds the box and the water has gone – hard luck! But I will get you a drink after the Hunt is over. Anyone can enter and can win a trophy, although in order to be eligible for a prize voucher a team must work through a CGI SSC member as the prizes are reserved for CGI Sports and Social Club members.

You must submit your entry by 23:59 GMT on Sunday the 15th January 2017. Any legible format of entry is acceptable, eg: Word, Excel, PDF or any other type of electronic document; just make sure that they're easy to read so that we can mark them accurately. Please send them by email to steve.hames@cgi.com. I'll send back an acknowledgement once I've received your entry. Mark your submission as virgin if this is your first hunt. If you reach a putative treasure site and the black box or its recording are missing, please try to contact me on 07876 257818 - it is possible the box / recording may have been disturbed by a whale, a bowl of petunias or some other being unconnected with this quiz. If you are unable (for whatever reason) to visit a treasure site in person, please contact me to register your find – I'll let you know if you are right or wrong by the information that you give me at that time. All such finds will be credited according to the date at which you contact me.

Good luck, Merry Christmas and enjoy your drink.

Remember that the search is half the fun!

Steve Hames (considerably assisted by Roger Thetford).

Everything in here is true (more or less).

This Hunt has nothing, repeat NOTHING, to do with golf.

Cake! The guy says, and brings over a plate covered with small steaming brown lumps. I sniff them.
 “Maybe something in the savoury line might be more appropriate” I suggest. The guy looks at me as if his crest just fell.
 “Oh! Hash browns; my favourite!” E says. “Let me at them!”
 The guy looks much happier and offers the plate to E, who climbs onto it and lifts a crumb bigger than she is and then returns to my shoulder.
 “Your eyes are bigger than your stomach” I tell her.
 “I’m an ant; my eyes ARE bigger than my stomach”.
 Smartass.
